DESCRIPTION AND ASSUMPTIONS

STATE DESCRIPTION - LOUISIANA

The state of Louisiana consists of 64 parishes and has a total population of 4,559,567. With a total land area of 44,521 square miles (115,310 square kilometers), the state is relatively densely populated, at an average of 102.4 persons per square mile (36.5 per square kilometer)as compared to the national average of 63.9 persons per square mile. According to the 1980 federal census Louisiana was the nineteenth most populous state in the country. Louisiana is a comparatively "young" state; the median age in 1980 was 27.3 years.

The state is located in the extreme south central part of the United States, bounded on the west by Texas, on the north by Arkansas, on the east and northeast by Mississippi and on the south by the Gulf of Mexico. The climate of Louisiana is determined mainly by the huge land mass to the north, its subtropical latitude, and the Gulf of Mexico to the south. Summertime temperatures range from 85 degrees F. to 95 degrees F. during afternoons and 65 degrees F. to 75 degrees F. in the early mornings. Average winter temperatures range from 55 degrees F. to 65 degrees F. in the afternoons to 40 degrees F. to 50 degrees F. during early morning hours, although higher and lower readings are often observed. Freezing temperatures are recorded on 30 to 40 days in North and Central Louisiana during an average year and on 10 to 35 days in the southern parishes. The annual average precipitation in Louisiana for 1980 was 57.56 inches.

The four most heavily populated parishes in the state are Orleans, Jefferson, East Baton Rouge, and Caddo. Besides being the most populous, Orleans is also the most urbanized (99.9 percent in 1980), the most densely populated (2,816.1 persons per square mile), and the second smallest in land area (199 square miles). The smallest parish in land area is West Baton Rouge, with 194 square miles; the largest is Cameron with 1,417 square miles. Assumption parish has the largest percent of ruralized population (85.7 percent of the population lives outside urban centers).

Louisiana blends a wealth of historic charm, rich natural resources, and giant modern industries. Fertile soil, adequate rainfall, temperate climate, an ample and adaptable labor force, navigable waterways and excellent highway systems are factors basic to the state's wealth.

The southern section of Louisiana has many coastal marshes, bayous and generally low and flat terrain. The central portion is characterized by flat delta land suitable for agriculture. The northern part of the state is higher, with rolling hills and valleys. This variety of land types encourages an equally wide variety of both agricultural and industrial pursuits. The proximity of the state to the Gulf of Mexico; and its strategic location at the mouth of the Mississippi River provide the necessary entrance and egress for worldwide commerce.

LOUISIANA BACKGROUND AND ASSUMPTIONS

Louisiana's unemployment rate in 1985 averaged 11.5 percent, an increase of 1.5 percent from the average for 1984 (10.0 percent), and higher than the 7.1 percent unemployment recorded nationwide for 1985.

There was a loss in nonagricultural wage and salary employment of 4,000 workers. The largest decrease occurred in the Construction industry, which showed 12,400 fewer workers. There was also a loss of 4,100 workers in the Manufacturing industries where the manufacturing of nondurable goods showed a decrease of 2,900 workers and the manufacturing of durable goods had 1,200 fewer workers than in 1984.

Other industries to suffer losses during the past year were: Transportation, Communication and Public Utilities (minus 3,400 workers) and Wholesale Trade (1,200 fewer workers).

In spite of the rising unemployment rate and the overall loss in nonagricultural wage and salary employment, there were some industries that gained workers since 1984. Government increased by 6,100 workers during this period. Services industries gained 5,400 workers. The largest of this gain being in health services with an increase of 2,900 workers. Employment in the Retail Trade industry showed an increase in all areas, with the largest being 2,600 workers in the food stores segment.

All of the labor market areas of the state had an unemployment rate in excess of 10.0 percent with the exception of Lafayette (9.1 percent); Monroe (9.6 percent); and Shreveport (9.1 percent).

The average weekly wage paid in Manufacturing industries increased from $458.91 in 1984 to $479.63 in 1985. The average weekly wage paid in the Construction industry decreased by $3.70 during 1985. All the other industries showed increases in weekly wages.

POPULATION CHANGES IN LOUISIANA

1980 - 1985

Since 1980 Louisiana's population has seen a steady and gradual growth. Parishes located in the south and southeastern portions of the state have shown the most significant growth.

St. Tammany Parish continued to have the highest rate of increase in the state, with 32.2 percent or 35,414 persons during this period. This was closely followed by St. John Parish with a 31.1 percent increase. Both of these parishes are within the New Orleans MSA. While Orleans is still the most populous parish in the state, it had the least amount of increase (0.5 percent).

Livingston Parish, part of the Baton Rouge MSA, also showed a sizeable increase in population of 15,006 or 25.8 percent. East and West Baton Rouge Parish along with Ascension Parish are also in the Baton Rouge MSA and showed population increases of 9.3 percent; 9.2 percent; and 14.4 percent respectively.

The population of Lafayette Parish has increased by 20.0 percent over the 1980-1985 period. Also included in the Lafayette MSA is St. Martin Parish which showed a population gain of 7,209 persons or 18.0 percent.

Caddo Parish, which is located in the northwest corner of the state, has shown modest population growth since 1980. This increase amounted to 2.5 percent. Bossier Parish, also a part of the Shreveport MSA, continues to grow population wise much faster than Caddo Parish. Population increased from 80,906 in 1980 to 91,894 in 1985, a gain of 13.6 percent.

The northeast section of the state, including the parishes of Franklin, Madison, Morehouse, Richland and West Carroll, have shown only moderate increases in population over the five year span. These parishes all have an agricultural economy and are still largely rural with little industrial activity.

The parishes of Bienville and West Feliciana showed only slight increases since 1980. West Feliciana showed a 1.7 percent increase and Bienville showed a 1.9 percent increase.

Of the 64 parishes in the state, only 3 parishes showed a decrease in population from 1980 to 1985. These were East Carroll (-3.2 percent), Jackson (-0.8 percent), and Tensas (-2.8 percent). These areas are also rural, with little industrial activity.

Overall growth for the state of Louisiana since 1980 was 8.6 percent, or 360,025 persons.

Growth in the "Sunbelt" region occurred during the decade of the 70's due in a great part to the phenominal activity in the Petroleum industry. The depressed status of the industry over the past few years resulted in fewer job opportunities, and job seekers may have become hesitant to relocate in Louisiana. Should the state be successful in developing a more diversified economy, we may realize renewed growth rates that would be above recent increases.

Parishes with a population in excess of 100,000 for 1985, with their largest cities indicated, are listed below:

Orleans Parish	(New Orleans)	560,400
Jefferson Parish	(Metairie)	489,646
East Baton Rouge Parish	(Baton Rouge)	402,616

Ouachita Parish	(Monroe)	144,927
Rapides Parish	(Alexandria)	140,610

The total population of the state for 1985 is projected at 4,559,567.

CONSUMER PRICE INDEX

The Consumer Price Index, sometimes called the "Cost of Living Index" is a monthly measure of the average change in prices in a fixed quantity of goods and services. Prices are gathered from 85 areas across the country. The year 1967 is used as the base period. While the CPI may provide a broad outline of price fluctuations, it cannot reflect individual buying trends or regional experiences.

POVERTY GUIDELINES

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED

An economically disadvantaged person is one who is a member of a family which receives cash welfare payments or whose annual income in relation to family size and location does not exceed the established poverty levels listed below. As of March 1986.

FAMILY SIZE	POVERTY GUIDELINE
1	5,360
2	7,240
3	9,120
4	11,000
5	12,880
6	14,760
7	16,640
8	18,520

For family units with more than 8 members, add $1,880 for each additional member.

Please notice that there is no longer a distinction between Farm and Non Farm Family.

BARRIERS TO EMPLOYMENT OF THE ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED

Barriers to employment often hinder several groups of people from finding and obtaining employment. Groups who have these special problems often experience an unemployment rate higher than the rest of the labor force.

Educational deficiencies are the greatest barrier to employment of the disadvantaged. The lack of education and specific skills that are in demand can cause tremendous difficulties in obtaining employment.

Lack of training or actual job experience is also a major barrier to employment. Even through a person may have an adequate education, he may lack the training or experience necessary to perform a specific job.

Poor health is a very common problem than can affect employability. If a person is seriously handicapped, finding suitable employment and arranging transportation to it may be very difficult. Also, a worker is sometimes forced to remain at home or limit their work schedule to care for an ill or disabled family member.

Problems concerning transportation can be enormous for the disadvantaged. The rising cost of automobiles and gasoline have attributed to the problem. Also, the price of public transportation has increased in some areas and some lines and schedules have been discontinued, making fewer transportation alternatives available for many of the disadvantaged.

Other prevalant problems include police records, rigid hiring practices by employers, child care, and personal problems.

SECTION IX

JOB TRAINING PARTNERSHIP ACT (JTPA)

JOB TRAINING PARTNERSHIP ACT

The Job Training Partnership Act (Public Law 97-300-Oct 13, 1982) is replacing the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 as the nation's major employment incentive program. The purpose of this Act is to establish programs to prepare youth and unskilled adults for entry into the labor force and to afford job training to those economically disadvantaged individuals and other individuals facing serious barriers to employment, who are in special need of such training to obtain productive employment.

Under the Job Training Partnership Act, many responsibilities formerly carried out by the Federal Government devolve to States and local labor markets. The Governor has approval authority over locally-developed plans, and is responsible for monitoring local program compliance with the Act. In addition, a new public/private partnership is created to plan and design training programs as well as to deliver training and other services.

SERVICE DELIVERY AREAS, designated by the governor, based upon recommendations of the State Job Training Coordinating Council, will deliver services under the Act. Seventeen of these areas which include the entire state, have been designated in Louisiana. Planning functions of both the Governor's representatives and the service delivery areas will require considerable statistical information including the characteristics of populations in the respective areas.

In the case of labor force data, unrounded figures have been shown since allocation procedures require their use rather than the normally published rounded information.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

EXPLANATORY MATERIAL

The information presented in this document was compiled by the LA Department of Labor, affilated with the U. S. Department of Labor.

An explanation of some of the terminology used in this report follows:

LABOR AREA: A labor area is a geographical area consisting of a central city or cities and the surrounding territory in which there is a concentration of economic activity and in which workers can usually change jobs without changing their residence.

CIVILIAN LABOR FORCE: The civilian labor force represents the sum of the employed (exclusive of the Armed Forces), the unemployed, and persons involved in labor-management disputes.

EMPLOYMENT: Employment estimates are developed mainly from a sample of establishments which report regularly on their employment. These estimates are periodically compared with comprehensive data on employment obtained from tax records, which provide benchmarks for the various non-agricultural industries. Appropriate adjustments are made as needed.

NONAGRICULTRUAL WAGE AND SALARY EMPLOYMENT: Nonagricultural Wage & Salary employment refers only to employees on establishment payrolls during the sample week in each month (this week always includes the 12th of the month) and excludes self-employed, unpaid family workers, and workers involved in labor-management disputes.

ALL OTHER NONAGRICULTURAL EMPLOYMENT: This category includes persons who work in non-farm industries who are not reported on payrolls, such as self employed workers, domestic workers in private households, and unpaid family workers.

UNEMPLOYMENT: Unemployment data included in this report are conceptually comparable with those released by the United States Department of Labor each month for the country as a whole. The unemployment estimates include all workers not at work but actually seeking work. Unemployed workers are counted by their place of residence. The unemployment rate represents the number of unemployed as a per cent of the civilian labor force.

APPLICANTS: Applicants are individuals who are registered with the local Job Service Office and are reasonally representative of the available worker supply in most occupational categories and for most sections of the area.

PLACEMENTS: Placements occur when a local Job Service Office, which has an employer job order, refers a qualified applicant to the employer and verifies the fact that the applicant has been hired by the employer.

STATE DESCRIPTION - LOUISIANA

The state of Louisiana consists of 64 parishes and has a total population of 4,574,469. With a total land area of 44,521 square miles (115,310 square kilometers), the state is relatively densely populated, at an average of 102.4 persons per square mile (36.5 per square kilometer)as compared to the national average of 63.9 persons per square mile. According to the 1980 federal census Louisiana was the nineteenth most populous state in the country. Louisiana is a comparatively "young" state; the median age in 1980 was 27.3 years.

The state is located in the extreme south central part of the United States, bounded on the west by Texas, on the north by Arkansas, on the east and northeast by Mississippi and on the south by the Gulf of Mexico. The climate of Louisiana is determined mainly by the huge land mass to the north, its subtropical latitude, and the Gulf of Mexico to the south. Summertime temperatures range from 85 degrees F. to 95 degrees F. during afternoons and 65 degrees F. to 75 degrees F. in the early mornings. Average winter temperatures range from 55 degrees F. to 65 degrees F. in the afternoons to 40 degrees F. to 50 degrees F. during early morning hours, although higher and lower readings are often observed. Freezing temperatures are recorded on 30 to 40 days in North and Central Louisiana during an average year and on 10 to 35 days in the southern parishes. The annual average precipitation in Louisiana for 1980 was 57.56 inches.

The four most heavily populated parishes in the state are Orleans, Jefferson, East Baton Rouge, and Caddo. Besides being the most populous, Orleans is also the most urbanized (99.9 percent in 1980), the most densely populated (2,816.1 persons per square mile), and the second smallest in land area (199 square miles). The smallest parish in land area is West Baton Rouge, with 194 square miles; the largest is Cameron with 1,417 square miles. Assumption parish has the largest percent of ruralized population (85.7 percent of the population lives outside urban centers).

Louisiana blends a wealth of historic charm, rich natural resources, and giant modern industries. Fertile soil, adequate rainfall, temperate climate, an ample and adaptable labor force, navigable waterways and excellent highway systems are factors basic to the state's wealth.

The southern section of Louisiana has many coastal marshes, bayous and generally low and flat terrain. The central portion is characterized by flat delta land suitable for agriculture. The northern part of the state is higher, with rolling hills and valleys. This variety of land types encourages an equally wide variety of both agricultural and industrial pursuits. The proximity of the state to the Gulf of Mexico; and its strategic location at the mouth of the Mississippi River provide the necessary entrance and egress for worldwide commerce.

Louisiana's unemployment rate in 1986 averaged 13.1 percent, an increase of 1.6 percent from the average for 1985 (11.5 percent), and higher than the 7.0 percent unemployment recorded nationwide for 1986.

There was a substantial loss in nonagricultural wage and salary employment during 1986. The largest decrease occurred in the Mining industry, which showed 17,400 fewer workers. Of this decrease, 17,300 were in the Oil and Gas Extraction sector. Another industry to show a large decrease in employment was the Construction industry, which lost 14,500 workers. There was also a loss of 13,100 workers in the Wholesale and Retail Trade industies, where Wholesale Trade showed a decrease of 7,200 workers and Retail Trade had 5,900 fewer workers than in 1985. Manufacturing also suffered a loss of approximately 11,300 workers where the manufacture of durable goods showed a decrease of 8,600 workers and the manufacturing of nondurable goods had 2,600 fewer workers.

Most major industries suffered losses during the past year except Finance, Insurance and Real Estate, which showed a small increase of 200 workers since 1985.

There were some industries that gained employment since 1985. Even though the Services industries lost 1,600 workers overall, the health services industry showed an increase of 3,400 workers. Other increases in the Services sector showing an increase were Legal Services with an increase of 700 workers and Social Services with an increase of 400 workers. Under Retail Trade, Food Stores had an increase in employment of 1,100 since 1985.

All of the labor market areas of the state had an unemployment rate in excess of 10.0 percent with the exception of Linclon (6.4 percent); East Baton Rouge (9.4 percent); and Vernon 9.1 percent).

The average weekly wage paid in Manufacturing industries increased from $476.93 in 1985 to $492.86 in 1986. The average weekly wage paid in the Construction industry decreased by $8.98 during 1986. All the other industries showed increases in weekly wages.

POPULATION CHANGES IN LOUISIANA

The state map on page 10 was prepared to show the parishes of the state in which there was population growth since 1980. Parishes located in the south and southeastern portions of the state continue to show the most significant growth.

New Orleans is the largest city in the state and includes the entire parish of Orleans. Although this parish is in the core of the area showing the largest population growth, its population has experienced only slight growth since 1980. Due to congested residential areas in this parish, many residents continue to seek housing in the bordering parishes. St. John Parish had the highest rate of increase in the state, with 35.7 percent or 11,389 persons during this period. Directly across Lake Pontchartrain from New Orleans, is St. Tammany Parish which closely followed with a 34.4 percent increase. St. Charles Parish, also bordering Lake Pontchartrain on the west, had a population increase of 6,425 or 17.2 percent.

Another fast growing area that has continued to show steady growth is Livingston Parish. Population in this area has grown by 16,960 persons or 29.2 percent since 1980. Ascension Parish is also included with Livingston in the Baton Rouge MSA and showed an increase in growth of 16.6 percent or 8,568 persons. Other parishes in the Baton Rouge MSA are East and West Baton Rouge and both showed increases of 8.8 percent and 10.9 percent respectively.

Although Lafayette Parish has been adversely effected by the depressed status of the oil and gas industry, the population growth from 1980 to 1986 has shown a substantial increase of 20.0 percent or 29,734. Also included in the Lafayette MSA is St. Martin Parish which followed closely in growth of 7,452 persons or 18.6 percent.

Vernon Parish, centrally located on the western border of the state, has also experienced a substantial population gain of 10,475 persons or 19.7 percent.

All the parishes that form the northeast border of Louisiana continue to show only slight increases in population due to the fact they are largely rich delta and rural areas. The only parish in the state to show a decrease in population from 1980 to 1986 was Tensas (-2.2 percent), which is also bordering the northeast corner of Louisiana.

The population of Caddo Parish is the northwest corner of the state, has experienced moderate growth since 1980. This increase amounted to 23,710 persons or 9.4 percent for the past six years. Also included in the Shreveport MSA is Bossier Parish which had an estimated 1986 population of 92,994, an increase of 14.9 percent over 1980. Bossier Parish continues to grow population-wise much faster than Caddo Parish.

The overall growth for the state of Louisiana since 1980 was 8.9 percent, or 374,927 persons.

Parishes with a population in excess of 100,000 for 1986, with their largest cities indicated, are listed below:

Orleans Parish	(New Orleans)	564,183
Jefferson Parish	(Metairie)	486,060

CONSUMER PRICE INDEX

The Consumer Price Index, sometimes called the "Cost of Living Index" is a monthly measure of the average change in prices in a fixed quantity of goods and services. Prices are gathered from 85 areas across the country. The year 1967 is used as the base period. While the CPI may provide a broad outline of price fluctuations, it cannot reflect individual buying trends or regional experiences.

POVERTY GUIDELINES

CHARACTERISTICS OF THE ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED

An economically disadvantaged person is one who is a member of a family which receives cash welfare payments or whose annual income in relation to family size and location does not exceed the established poverty levels listed below. As of March 1987.

1	$5,500
2	7,400
3	9,300
4	11,200
5	13,100
6	15,000
7	16,900
8	18,800

For family units with more than 8 members, add $1,900 for each additional member.

Please notice that there is no longer a distinction between Farm and Non Farm Family.

BARRIERS TO EMPLOYMENT OF THE ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED

Barriers to employment often hinder several groups of people from finding and obtaining employment. Groups who have these special problems often experience an unemployment rate higher than the rest of the labor force.

Educational deficiencies are the greatest barrier to employment of the disadvantaged. The lack of education and specific skills that are in demand can cause tremendous difficulties in obtaining employment.

Lack of training or actual job experience is also a major barrier to employment. Even through a person may have an adequate education, he may lack the training or experience necessary to perform a specific job.

Poor health is a very common problem than can affect employability. If a person is seriously handicapped, finding suitable employment and arranging transportation to it may be very difficult. Also, a worker is sometimes forced to remain at home or limit their work schedule to care for an ill or disabled family member.

Problems concerning transportation can be enormous for the disadvantaged. The rising cost of automobiles and gasoline have attributed to the problem. Also, the price of public transportation has increased in some areas and some lines and schedules have been discontinued, making fewer transportation alternatives available for many of the disadvantaged.

Other prevalant problems include police records, rigid hiring practices by employers, child care, and personal problems.

SECTION IX

JOB TRAINING PARTNERSHIP ACT (JTPA)

JOB TRAINING PARTNERSHIP ACT

The Job Training Partnership Act (Public Law 97-300-Oct 13, 1982) is replacing the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act of 1973 as the nation's major employment incentive program. The purpose of this Act is to establish programs to prepare youth and unskilled adults for entry into the labor force and to afford job training to those economically disadvantaged individuals and other individuals facing sericus barriers to employment, who are in special need of such training to obtain productive employment.

Under the Job Training Partnership Act, many responsibilities formerly carried out by the Federal Government devolve to States and local labor markets. The Governor has approval authority over locally-developed plans, and is responsible for monitoring local program compliance with the Act. In addition, a new public/private partnership is created to plan and design training programs as well as to deliver training and other services.

SERVICE DELIVERY AREAS, designated by the governor, based upon recommendations of the State Job Training Coordinating Council, will deliver services under the Act. Seventeen of these areas which include the entire state, have been designated in Louisiana. Planning functions of both the Governor's representatives and the service delivery areas will require considerable statistical information including the characteristics of populations in the respective areas.

In the case of labor force data, unrounded figures have been shown since allocation procedures require their use rather than the normally published rounded information.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

EXPLANATORY MATERIAL

The information presented in this document was compiled by the LA Department of Labor, affilated with the U. S. Department of Labor.

An explanation of some of the terminology used in this report follows:

LABOR AREA: A labor area is a geographical area consisting of a central city or cities and the surrounding territory in which there is a concentration of economic activity and in which workers can usually change jobs without changing their residence.

CIVILIAN LABOR FORCE: The civilian labor force represents the sum of the employed (exclusive of the Armed Forces), the unemployed, and persons involved in labor-management disputes.

EMPLOYMENT: Employment estimates are developed mainly from a sample of establishments which report regularly on their employment. These estimates are periodically compared with comprehensive data on employment obtained from tax records, which provide benchmarks for the various non-agricultural industries. Appropriate adjustments are made as needed.

NONAGRICULTRUAL WAGE AND SALARY EMPLOYMENT: Nonagricultural Wage & Salary employment refers only to employees on establiishment payrolls during the sample week in each month (this week always includes the 12th of the month) and excludes self-employed, unpaid family workers, and workers involved in labor-management disputes.

ALL OTHER NONAGRICULTURAL EMPLOYMENT: This category includes persons who work in non-farm industries who are not reported on payrolls, such as self employed workers, domestic workers in private households, and unpaid family workers.

UNEMPLOYMENT: Unemployment data included in this report are conceptually comparable with those released by the United States Department of Labor each month for the country as a whole. The unemployment estimates include all workers not at work but actually seeking work. Unemployed workers are counted by their place of residence. The unemployment rate represents the number of unemployed as a per cent of the civilian labor force.

APPLICANTS: Applicants are individuals who are registered with the local Job Service Office and are reasonally representative of the available worker supply in most occupational categories and for most sections of the area.

PLACEMENTS: Placements occur when a local Job Service Office, which has an employer job order, refers a qualified applicant to the employer and verifies the fact that the applicant has been hired by the employer.
